THE Senate, Thursday, refused to confirm quite a number of nominations.

ARMSTRONG COUNTY.—The Republican County Convention will be held on the 2d day of next June.

LAWRENCE COUNTY.—The Republican Committee of this county will meet May 8th, to fix the time for holding the nominating Convention.

JUNIATA CO.—The Republican county Convention will be held May 19th. Candidates will be nominated for Congress, Assembly, Associate Judges, Prothonotary, Commissioner and Auditor.

THE Secretary of the Treasury has at last done what he should have done many months ago—ordered that no more temporary deposits, drawing interest, be received by the Assistant Treasurer. Why he has let the matter run so long—paying interest on money not used—is unaccountable. But, better late than never.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Baltimore American, writing from the heroic city, says the first families still sing the "Bonnie Blue Flag," "Wear the Gray," and talk of the "stern statesman" as "President Davis," and prate of their rights under the Constitution and the old flag. Of course, none but radicals insist such people are not yet in a frame of mind to participate in the control of the Government.

The Johnson-Cowan Programme.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Will you allow me a small space in your columns to communicate to your readers some facts connected with the programme of President Johnson and Senator Cowan in relation to the coming campaign? The true men throughout the country are beginning to think that State Legislator are not the only suspicious characters in community, as there appear to be a few others "lying around loose" who are ready to deny the faith and sell themselves to anybody for an office. A great many shameful stories circulated about our Representatives at Harrisburg (some no doubt true and others false,) and yet there have been but two instances in which it has been even charged that men were willing to sell themselves on a political issue to the opposite party, and in both instances the reputed purchasable creatures were so-called Democrats, alias Copperheads. Amongst all the charges laid against Republicans there has never been an insinuation that there was one mean enough to sell himself out to the Copperhead party. But it has been left for Senator Cowan and President Johnson to begin the work of buying, by means of Federal patronage, as many so-called Republicans as will fill the various offices at their disposal; and it appears they have already succeeded in getting a few base enough to ignore their manhood and who have allowed themselves to be knocked off to the highest bidder.

The programme of the President and his chief counsellor—Senator Cowan—is to concentrate all their efforts in this State on a few Legislative and Senatorial districts in the hope that enough close districts can be carried against the Union Republican party to give the majority on joint ballot, to the combined forces of old Copperheads, and Cowan and Johnson men, and thus secure the re-election of Mr. Cowan to the United States Senate. Messrs. Editors, I know what I say when I state that Mr. Cowan and the Copperheads are secretly working together to carry such districts as INDIANA AND WESTMORELAND, SOMERSET, BEDFORD AND FULTON, PERRY AND FRANKLIN, UNION, SNYDER AND LYCOMING AND ADAMS, as well as three districts in Philadelphia. And the poor deluded creatures appear to think that there is Federal patronage enough about Pittsburgh and Allegheny to create a Johnson and Cowan party strong enough to carry a Cowan ticket in Allegheny county.

I am informed upon good authority that Mr. Cowan has arranged it so as to concentrate the entire Federal patronage of the Twenty-first District in Westmoreland county, provided he can find a Republican in Greensburg sufficiently destitute of principle to accept the Collectorship in place of James M. Thompson, Esq., of Uniontown. The present incumbent, Mr. Thompson, is the equal, in point of business capacity and acceptability, to any man in the three counties, and in point of character, so far superior to any Republican in the district, who would accept the position, with the conditions annexed, that it would be an unpardonable sin to make the comparison. Notwithstanding the character and competency of the man, Mr. Cowan thinks it won't pay to keep the Collector in Fayette county, as he is sure of the Copperhead vote of that county, and he thinks a pressure of patronage in Westmoreland county will enable him to raise a party in his own county strong enough, when united to the Copperhead vote, to carry three members of the Legislature. The editor of the Greensburg Herald is the Assessor in the Twenty-first District, and has made a most efficient officer; but he has been compelled to send forth through his paper an uncertain sound for some time back in order to save his head; and now things are so shaping themselves that he will have to ignore his better judgment, and advocate, without let or hindrance, the Cowan and Johnson policy, or else follow the leadings of his conscience and suffer decapitation. Which he will do, time alone will tell. His friends still think he will follow the dictates of his conscience. In the event of the editor of the Greensburg Herald standing by his party and refusing to be guided by the Cowan "bit and bridle," then there is a man in Indiana who is holding himself ready to grab at the price of treachery to the party. These are times to try men's principles.

Messrs. Editors, there is no intention on the part of Cowan and Johnson to bestow any office, at present, upon any old Copperhead. That would reveal the cloven foot and frustrate the object aimed at—the disintegration of the Union Republican party. The Copperheads understand the programme perfectly, and they have agreed to wait until the destruction of the Republican party, before they are to share the spoils. Their apparent discontent, as manifested occasionally, because the President don't appoint some of them to office, is part and parcel of a well-laid scheme to deceive credulous Republicans, and make them believe that Cowan and Johnson are still adhering to the Union reorganization, and are not in confederation with such men as Vallandigham.

But the people are awake, and hosts of those who a few weeks ago thought such papers as the "Commercial," in your city, were still true to the principles of the Union party, now know that they are "cheek by jowl" with the men who labored to destroy the Government; and although some of us thought that the Gazette, Forney's Press, and such papers were a little too radical, we now see you comprehended the situation better than we. Be assured the honest country people are sound to the core in sustaining Congress and the party that sustained the Government against Copperheads and Southern traitors.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The Post's special says a bill prohibiting the landing of passengers from emigrant ships which arrive here overloaded is to be introduced into the House.

Officers of the General Government have commenced the removal from the Battery barracks of thousands of muskets stored there, which were taken a year ago from Lee's and other armies. The work will consume a week. The Board of Health will enter upon the premises as soon as possible.

The Commercial's special says Mr. Smythe's nomination to the Collectorship has been referred to Gov. Morgan, who has not yet reported to the Commerce Committee, which will not have a meeting till Thursday.

A delegation from New York is in Washington, urging Secretary Seward to take action against crowding emigrant ships, which engenders pestilence and death.

Fever and Ague Extinguished.

Martyrs to Intermittent Fever, a word with you. The responsibility for your suffering rests upon yourselves. Just as surely as you shake to-day, or will shake to-morrow, Hostetter's celebrated Stomach Bitters will extinguish the disease under which you labor. Had you taken this genial tonic as a preventive; you would have no need of it as a cure, for it renders the system impervious to all miasmatic fevers. But since you neglected the precaution, rid yourselves without delay of the complaint by resorting to the only reliable remedy. Break the chills with Hostetter's Bitters, and they will return no more. This is the experience of thousands, and it will be yours. Quinine is a slow means of relief; it is nauseous to the last degree; it is more dangerous than the malady itself; in many cases it utterly fails. How different is the effect of the bitters. Their curative action is rapid; they are agreeable to the palate; they are not only entirely harmless, but tend inevitably to strengthen the constitution and prolong life; they never have failed, and it is confidently assumed that they never can fail in any case of Fever and Ague, however inveterate in its character. To be without Hostetter's Bitters in any region infested with Intermittent or Remittent Fever is simply to reject safety and court disease.

THE LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, April 27.

SENATE.

The bill to establish telegraphic communication between the United States and Cuba was taken up.

On a question to concur in the House Amendment the Senate refused to concur, and a Committee of Conference was appointed.

Mr. Wilson offered a resolution granting the use of the Senate Chamber to James E. Murdoch, to give readings on Thursday evening next, in aid of the fund for the establishment of a Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Asylum.

Mr. Riddle objected to the present consideration of the resolution, and it went over.

The special order of the day, the bill for the relief of certain naval contractors, was taken up. The pending question was on the motion of Mr. Henderson to postpone the bill till the first Monday in December.

Messrs. Hendricks and Nye spoke in favor of the bill, and Messrs. Clarke and Riddle against it. The discussion occupied three hours.

On the motion to postpone the bill until December, the roll was called and the vote stood 17 yeas, against 25 nays.

Mr. Henderson then moved to recommit the bill and amendment to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr. Conness hoped it would be recommitted to the Committee on Claims.

Mr. Davis suggested that the committee be instructed to report separately upon each case.

The Senate refused to recommit the bill by a vote of 43 yeas, against 33 nays. The bill was then passed.

Mr. Wilson offered a joint resolution for the following amendment to the Constitution: "No payment shall ever be made by the United States or any State for or on account of the emancipation of any slave or slaves, or for or on account of any debt contracted or incurred in aid of the insurrection against the United States. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State; but, whenever in any State the elective franchise shall be denied to any of its inhabitants, being male citizens of the United States, above the age of twenty-one years, for any cause except insurrection or rebellion against the United States, the basis of representation in such State shall be reduced in the proportion that the number of male citizens so excluded shall be as to the whole number of male citizens over twenty-one years of age. The second clause of the resolution provides that whenever any of the States, lately in rebellion, shall ratify the foregoing article, the Senators and Representatives from such State or States, shall be admitted into Congress."

The resolution was ordered to be printed.

The Senate at 5:30 adjourned, to meet on Monday.

HOUSE.

Mr. Washburne, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill for the relief of Charles Bremens & Co., for the passage on board the Hawaiian bark Kamehameha, on the 24 ult., of two destitute seamen of an American vessel burned by the Shenandoah, from Ascension Island to Honolulu.

The morning hour having arrived, the bill went over till next Friday.

Mr. Morrill gave notice that the bill to amend the Internal Revenue act would not be called up till Monday week.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Northern Pacific Railroad Bills, and the Clerk read a substitute offered by Mr. Stevens, as modified by him. The modification consists of the following: Strike out section 3d and insert in addition to section 2d, as follows: "And upon the failure on the part of the company for a period of ninety days to pay interest on said stocks as the same may mature and become due, the treasurer of the United States may have power to sell so much of the said lands so reserved as aforesaid, at public sale, as will reimburse the Government for the payment of said interest; provided, that said lands shall not be sold for less than $2.50 per acre." Add to the proviso at the end of the bill the following: "Provided further, that at least three-fourths of the board of directors shall always be citizens of the United States. Provided further, that the Government shall not be called upon to pay the interest on the cost of construction of more than fifty miles of said road for the first year, nor for more than one hundred miles additional for the second year, nor for more than two hundred miles additional for the third year, nor for more than two hundred miles additional for the fourth year, and after that time on no more than three hundred additional miles per year till such road is completed.

Mr. Bingham addressed the House in support of the bill. He said that the substitute just read removed and silenced the objection urged by the gentlemen who had spoken against the adoption of the measure. The bill would receive the vote of every member of the House. It was the duty of statesmanship to develope all the resources of the nation and to enable the nation to lay its hand on the commerce of the great east by becoming the carrier of that imense trade by the shortest possible route.

Mr. Rogers next made an argument in support of the bill. He declared that there was no fraud, or taint of fraud upon the bill, and there should be no imputation on the character of the gentlemen who were here urging its passage.

Mr. Driggs next addressed the House in support of the bill. He regarded the matter as a national work of great importance, and one which members from all sections of the country should sustain.

Mr. Grinnell followed on the same side. The immense grant of land to be owned by the Company was not worth more than so much moonshine or clear sky, not worth a penny an acre without access to it by railroad. No man was rich enough to own and pay taxes on it without access to it. Although the Central Pacific Railroad passed his door, he was willing to have a Northern Road also constructed and as many other Railroads to the Pacific as could be built.

Mr. Broomall said as we found the taxes too heavy to equalize soldier's bounties, they were too heavy for this grant of money.

Mr. Harding was unwilling to add a dollar to the debt except for works of great national importance, which this was not. "Owe no man anything" and "go not security for others," were good scripture maxims.

Mr. Stevens said the question ought to be discussed with gravity. This was a national work, and ought to be put through. He had read a list of the directors' names, and called on Mr. Banks to vouch for them. The country through which the road was projected was richer in minerals than any other. He was informed arrangements were now being made to bring emigrants from the north of Europe this summer to plant along the line.

Mr. Banks occupied a few moments of Mr. Stevens' time.

Mr. Price moved the previous question.

Mr. Spaulding moved that the bill and pending amendment be laid on the table.

Mr. Spaulding insisted on his motion, and called for the yeas and nays on it. The question was taken on the motion to lay on the table, intense interest being manifested as it became evident that the motion was to succeed, and the vote resulted in 76 yeas, against 56 nays.

Mr. Wright moved to reconsider the vote, and to lay the motion to reconsider on the table.

Mr. Darling, with a view to prevent the vote being made final, moved an adjournment.

The House refused to adjourn:—yeas 51, nays 69.

Mr. Lynch called for the yeas and nays, and there were some indications of a purpose on the part of the friends of the bill to fillibuster. The yeas and nays were taken and the House again refused to adjourn.

A motion to reconsider was then laid on the table without a decision.

On motion of Mr. Stevens it was ordered that the session to-morrow be confined to debate on the President's annual message.

On motion of Mr. Elliott, a Committee of Conference was ordered on the West India Telegraph bill.

Mr. Ross asked leave to call up the motion to reconsider the recommitting of the question of the admission of Tennessee to the Committee on Reconstruction, which he designated as a putrid and corrupt carcass, a stench in the nostrils of the people, which should be abated, now that the cholera was approaching.

The Speaker ruled it could not be called up.

The House then adjourned.

RECONSTRUCTION.

Action of New York Delegation.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED.

Heads of the Rebel Government Debarred from Holding Office.

THE SENATE ON PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS.

Counsel Retained for Jeff. Davis.

GEN. GRANT'S VISIT TO RICHMOND.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The Times' special says: The meeting and action of the New York Congressional delegation last evening, with reference to reconstruction, has been the subject of much comment to-day, and has created considerable surprise among the extreme men, who counted on the majority of that delegation as sure to favor forced negro suffrage in any event. The following is the substance of the proposition, which was received with the greatest favor by the meeting:

First—A constitutional amendment basing representation on population, and providing that whenever any State denies suffrage to any class of citizens of the United States for any reason, except for participation in the rebellion, such disfranchised class or portion shall be deducted from the basis of representation.

Second—A constitutional amendment prohibiting the payment of the rebel debt, and providing that there shall never be compensation for emancipated slaves.

Third—As a part of the plan of restoration, it is proposed that whenever these amendments be ratified by a sufficient number of States to make them a part of the Constitution, then each of the rebellious States shall be entitled to the admission of its representatives, on their taking the required oath of office.

Fourth—The following classes of persons to be forever debarred from holding office under the United States Government: The President and Vice President, heads of Departments, members of Congress and Judges of the Supreme Court of the Confederate States, their representatives at foreign Courts, and all persons who left official positions under the United States Government to aid in the rebellion; all who served in the rebel army above the rank of Colonel, or in the navy above the rank of Master; and all persons guilty of treating our prisoners contrary to the rules of war. This proposition was not formally adopted, but it was agreed that it should be presented to the Reconstruction Committee as that which would be generally acceptable to the New York delegation. The question of a negro suffrage condition, either immediate or remote, was received with very little favor. The question of the immediate admission of Tennessee was not discussed, but such members as expressed themselves at all were decidedly in favor of it. It is understood that three of the most prominent members of the Reconstruction Committee will urge this proposition, viz: Senator Harris and Representatives Conkling and Boutwell.

The Tribune's special says: The statement is whispered about this evening that the Senate to-day, in executive session, discussed some other matters than military confirmations, which were passed upon without opposition. If rumor is to be credited, the majority of the Senate very distinctly announced that no nomination should be confirmed when made to fill a place made vacant by the removal, for opinions sake, of any competent officer who supported the election of Andrew Johnson in the last Presidential canvass. The Senate is bound to sustain the President's earliest and best friends and supporters. Senator Morgan being on the Committee on Commerce when the case of Mr. Smythe came up for action, it was referred to Governor Morgan as the Senator from New York. It is customary to report back cases after one week's delay, and a report of the case may be expected by the committee to-day, but nothing was said by Senator Morgan, and as there is no meeting of the Committee until next Thursday, no action will be had on the case during the interim. It is supposed that no objections of moment will be made to his confirmation.

The Herald's special says: General Grant's visit to Richmond was marked with many pleasing incidents and gratifying results. People flocked to see him in large numbers, from curiosity no doubt, but during his stay he was called upon respectfully by such persons as Robert Ould, ex-rebel commissioner for exchange of prisoners, Gen. Jos. Anderson of the Tredegar Iron Works, Mayor Mayo, Generals Wickham and Henningsen, Judges Lyons, Meredith, Hill, Carter, Watts, Harrison, and many other influential citizens. The ladies also called upon Mrs. Grant freely, and every one who called manifested becoming feelings and sentiments. The Railroad Company placed a special car at his disposal, and the Spottswood House assigned him a fine suite of rooms. The Ballard House contributed to his comfort and pleasure. He dined once with General Turner, temporarily commanding; visited Fort Harrison and other points of interest, and returned well pleased with his visit.

The Times' special says: The would-be Senators from Colorado were upon the floor of the House to-day, urging the case of that Territory among the members, but the prospect is not as good as its friends could wish. Many Republicans express a determination to oppose it, some for the same reason that Mr. Sumner did, and others because it is certain to provoke another veto, which will still further alienate the President and Congress, and still others, for the very excellent reason that to give Colorado, with twenty-five thousand inhabitants, the same representation in the Senate as the great State of New York, is manifestly unjust and unjustifiable on any reasonable grounds whatever.

Messrs. Evart, Clifford and Rosseau, have been retained by the Government for the trial of Jeff. Davis. They were here yesterday arranging the case. Unless something occurs which is not now anticipated by the Administration, the determination of the time and place of the trial of Jeff. Davis will not be made until Attorney General Speed returns from the West, whither he has gone to recruit his health, somewhat impaired by close and unremitting application to business.

The Secretary of the Treasury believing that the time has come when the Government should no longer be in the position of a borrower of money, to-day ordered the Assistant United States Treasurer to discontinue the reception of deposits for temporary loans.

The Senate will take up the Universal Suffrage bill for the District of Columbia next week. So say several Republicans.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT DETROIT.

Railroad Depots and Ferry Burned.

TWENTY-EIGHT LIVES LOST.

DETROIT, April 27.—The Passenger and Freight depots of the Detroit and Milwaukee, and Michigan Southern Railroads, and ferry steamer Windsor, were destroyed by fire last night. The loss to the Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad will reach two hundred thousand dollars, and the Michigan Southern probably twenty thousand. The fire was occasioned by a barrel of benzine leaking its contents, and which was ignited from a lamp. The flames instantly spread in all directions, and in a few seconds the buildings and ferry Windsor were wrapped in flames.

A lamentable loss of life occurred on the boat. The Tribune gives the names of twenty-eight deck hands, fireman and porters, supposed to be burned or drowned. The boat was towed to the Canada shore, where she burned to the water's edge. The passenger trains on both roads were uninterrupted, temporary premises having been provided, and no detention will occur to the transmission of freight.

Massachusetts Soldiers' Bounty Bill.

BOSTON, April 27.—In the House of Representatives this afternoon, the bill to equalize the bounties of soldiers was ordered to a third reading by a vote of 125 yeas to 91 nays. The amendments which were proposed to the bill, except one, were rejected. The bill provides for the payment of nine dollars per month for every month's service in the army to those men who received no bounty, until the sum of $325 is reached, this being the maximum sum paid by the State, and whatever bounty any man may have received is to be deducted from the monthly compensation provided in the bill. A Committee of the Executive counsel are to examine the claims, and if the amount required to pay them exceeds $5,000,000, the matter is to be referred to the next Legislature.

From Nashville.

NASHVILLE, April 27.—In the court-martial case of Isham Henderson, Col. Coyle for the defense, requested an adjournment till to-morrow, because the charges presented differed from those previously made. His request was granted.

A Commission of sixteen influential citizens have been appointed by the City Councils to confer with the municipal authorities and citizens of Cincinnati regarding a direct railway communication between Cincinnati and Nashville. It is believed the movement will be cordially met in Cincinnati.

The Late Fenian Finale.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., April 27.—William H. Grace, a Fenian agitator and a Captain in the late Eastport expedition, has arrived here from Portland on his way home. He says the expedition would have been a success, had General Killian been sustained. He considers O'Mahoney an imbecile and a fraud on the public, and says that the only hope of success now is in supporting Roberts and Sweeney. He has told the Circle to send no more money to Union Square.

The Affray at Crittenden, Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, April 27.—James Robinson was not killed in the affray at Crittenden, Kentucky, as reported yesterday, but dangerously wounded. John Alexander Robinson and John Robinson were also severely hurt. The attacking party numbered twenty-five men, formerly guerrillas. No arrests have been made.

Cholera Hospital Report.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Dr. Bissell reports that there has been no admission of cholera patients to the hospital ship since the last report. There have been three more deaths.

MORE DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENCE.

The Withdrawal of the French Forces from Mexico.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The additional diplomatic correspondence between the Governments of France and the United States, is published. It treats of the negotiations which immediately preceded and led to the resolve of the French Government to make an official announcement of the prospective withdrawal of the French from Mexico. France desired in the first place to have her right to make war on Mexico recognized by the Government of the United States. This was readily granted; but the point to which France attributed a much greater importance, was the recognition of the Mexican Empire by the United States.

According to a dispatch from M. Drouyn De L'Huys to the French Minister at Washington, Mr. Bigelow, at an interview asked him (Drouyn De L'Huys) whether or not, in his opinion, the recognition of the Mexican Empire by the United States might facilitate and hasten the removal of the French troops. Mr. Bigelow in a note to Mr. Drouyn De L'Huys, regards the statement as not in accordance with what he uttered on that occasion. What he really did say was: "The logic of the situation required the independence of Mexico to be established by the withdrawal of all foreign soldiers, before our Government could formally recognize a Government accused of owing its existence to their presence."

Mr. Drouyn De L'Huys, in reply, thinks that there is no real difference between the two statements; and in again summing up the substance of the conversation, quotes Mr. Bigelow as having said that the United States being informed of the intention of the Government of the Emperor, might show more disposition to entertain the idea of recognition.

It seems to follow, from these dispatches, that the French Minister of Foreign Affairs understood the American Minister in Paris to intimate that after the withdrawal of the French troops from Mexico, the United States would be found willing to recognize the Empire, but he acknowledges that this was only an opinion of the American Minister, without pledging his Government to any positive policy.

Affairs in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, April 27.—The Ouchita country is flooded and the ground is cold. Corn will not germinate, and all the cotton seed is rotton. The Baton Rouge crevasse has been abandoned. The Grosse railroad is flooded, and the people have been driven from their houses.

The Very Reverend Berlingham, from Charleston, is soliciting aid for the burned Catholic institutions.

Mutinous Fenians.

PORTLAND, ME., April 27.—The steamboat New Brunswick arrived from Eastport this morning with two hundred Fenians aboard. On leaving Boston several who had gone ashore were left behind. At the entrance to the harbor the Fenians, who were spoiling for a fight, mutinied, drew their revolvers on the officers, and obliged the boat to put back. Some of the ringleaders were put ashore and sent on by rail. The boat proceeded at nine o'clock.

Destitution in Alabama.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Montgomery, Alabama, papers, just received, contain accounts of suffering and destitution in various counties of the State. As many as five hundred women have been seen around the Court House on days when rations were expected, having walked from fifteen to twenty miles, and within forty miles of Montgomery seven hundred destitute families are in actual want of food to sustain life.

The Philadelphia Murder—Trial of Probst.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—In case of Probst, on trial for the murder of the Deering family, the prosecution was closed this afternoon. The counsel for the defense stated that they had no witnesses and were allowed two hours to-morrow to speak in his behalf, when the case will go the jury. The case continues to excite much interest, the streets being crowded all day.

Large Sale of Wool.

BOSTON, April 27.—Messrs. Charles Lane & Co. sold out their entire stock of wool, about 300,000 pounds, this afternoon. The auctioneer was J. B. Osgood. The attendance was large and the bidding spirited. The wool was sold at prices ranging from 45 to 59½ cents per pound, in lots ranging from 5,000 to 20,000 pounds. The wool was mainly of the first quality, Ohio fleece, and brought the highest prices.

Commercial Matters at Trinidad.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

County Expenses.

We ask attention to the following communication from the County Controller, relative to increased county expenses, for which no provision has been, or can legally be made. The statements of the Controller are deserving of careful attention, from all who are interested in county affairs.

OFFICE CONTROLLER ALLEGHENY CO., PA., }
PITTSBURGH, April 26, 1866. }

Statement of increased expenses of Allegheny county, created by legislation in 1864, '65, '66, as contained in Acts of Assembly, viz:

Increasing the pay of Jurors and Witnesses.
Increasing the pay of Assessors and Constables.
Increasing the fees of Aldermen and Justices of the Peace.
Increasing the pay of the Mayor of Allegheny City.
Increasing the pay of County Commissioners and Clerk.
Increasing the pay of County Controller and Clerk.
Increasing the pay of County Solicitor.

Under the above passed at sessions of 1863, '65, the advanced cost of departments was as follows:

Court of Quarter Sessions, annual inc,		$ 6,800 00
Court of Common Pleas,	"	2,700 00
District Court,	"	1,100 00
Assessment of Taxes,	"	2,800 00
Election Expenses,	"	320 00
Constables,	"	400 00
Aldermen and Justices of the Peace,	"	224 00
Mayor of Allegheny City,	"	250 00
Commissioners' Office,	"	1,139 00
Controller's Office,	"	700 00
Solicitor's Office,	"	300 00
		$16,733 00

Estimated increase for 1866—Percentage of advance calculated on expenditures of 1865—as contained in acts of Assembly, viz:

Increasing the pay of jurors, and fees to sheriff for serving summons on same, in Allegheny county.
Increasing fees of physicians and surgeons, for post mortem examinations, in Allegheny county.
Increasing the pay of road viewers in Allegheny county.
Increasing the pay of interpreter for Courts in Allegheny county.
Increasing the pay of assistant warden of county prison.

COURTS OF QUARTER SESSIONS, COMMON PLEAS, AND DISTRICT COURT.
Jurors' pay—annual increase	$13,000 00
Interpreter's pay " "	350 00
SHERIFF'S OFFICE.
Summoning jurors—annual increase	1,800 00
CORONER'S OFFICE.
Post mortem examinations—an'l inc.	600 00
ROADS.
Viewers' pay—annual increase	300 00
COUNTY JAIL.
Assistant warden's pay—an'l inc	200 00
	$16,250 00

An act has also been passed compulsory on the county to pay $300 bounty to each veteran volunteer credited to her, who has not received local bounty from his district. The amount that may be required for that purpose cannot be estimated.

The act authorizing a Workhouse and Inebriate Asylum provides a special tax of one mill on present valuation for their establishment. The expense of sustaining these institutions must come from the county treasury.

Under existing laws the ordinary expenses of the county will reach $150,000, exclusive of Workhouse, &c. The raise in valuation at the triennial assessment of 1864 obviated the necessity of advancing the rate of taxation in 1865—'66; from present data an increase of two mills will be required in 1867. Hereafter the enhanced cost of each department, and the reasons therefor, will be noticed in the annual report of the fiscal affairs of the county.

HENRY LAMBERT, Controller.

The First U. P. Church, Allegheny.

We noticed, some time ago, the purchase of a lot by the First United Presbyterian congregation of Allegheny, upon which they design to erect a suitable house of worship. The lot is located on the west side of the East Common, north of Ohio street, and is admirably suited for church purposes. At a recent meeting of the Trustees, we learn that a fund of about ten thousand dollars was raised for the purpose of commencing operations. It is proposed to build the foundation walls this season, and proceed with the brick work next spring. The congregation is large, prosperous and wealthy, and the church edifice will be one of the most commodious and elegant in the two cities. The congregation has been for many years under the pastoral care of the venerable Dr. John T. Pressly, now one of the ablest ministers in the two cities.

Boy Shot.—On Tuesday last a lad named Clark, residing near Johnstown, was shot by a black boy—twenty shot entering the face and head. The black boy alleges accident, while two other boys state that the shooting was malicious. The offender was arrested and placed in jail to await the result of young Clark's injuries.

Jack Cooper, who murdered John Rhodenbaugh, of Franklin township, Portage county, Ohio, on the night of the 24th of October last, was executed yesterday afternoon, at Ravenna. John Rhodenbaugh had resided in Franklin over thirteen years, and was well known in Portage and adjoining counties as a Public Auctioneer. He was fifty-six years of age, and left a family consisting of a wife, four sons and a daughter. On the day of the murder he was in company with Cooper and a man named Beery, at the village of Kent, drinking and playing billiards. He parted with them at seven o'clock in the evening, and left for home. Having proceeded two-thirds of the distance, alone in an open wagon, he was assaulted and dealt a fatal blow upon the head (causing instant death) with a heavy club, cut near the scene of the murder. His person was robbed of a watch and the money he had with him, supposed to be near $200. The murder was discovered shortly after by a resident of the neighborhood, and suspicion at once attached to Jack Cooper and Joel Beery as the perpetrators of the awful crime. They were arrested near Ravenna, and at once incarcerated in jail. They were tried separately. Cooper was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hung. Beery was convicted of murder in the second degree.

The day of the execution of Cooper was first fixed for the 6th of April, but he was reprieved until the 27th, to allow a sister to visit him from a distant part of the country. In the meantime he made several desperate but unsuccessful attempts to break jail.

At one o'clock yesterday afternoon he was conveyed to the jail yard and mounted the scaffold with a cigar in his mouth, endeavoring to look careless and defiant. He made a rambling speech, in which he admitted to the killing of Rodenbaugh, but seemed more anxious to show how brave and fearless he was, than to confess his crime.

After he got through talking, the Sheriff told him to step forward, and the Rev. J. G. Hall asked him the following questions: Do you believe in Jesus Christ? I do. Are you sorry for your crime? I am. Do you want to die like a penitent? I do. He then kneeled down with the prisoner and offered a fervent prayer for his salvation. When they arose Cooper was pale and weeping. He then removed a military cape which had hitherto been on his shoulders, and his arms and legs were pinioned from behind. While this was being done he said with a horrible attempt to smile: "What did I tell you! Did'nt I tell you I'd do it." The Sheriff was about to adjust the rope when he took it from him and requested permission to adjust it himself. It was granted, and lifting his manacled hands he placed the noose over his head and gave directions as to the position of the knot. He then bade farewell to his friends, and the Sheriff said, "Jack Cooper, are you ready to meet your God?" Cooper replied, "Mr. Jennings, I'm ready to die. Knock it." The trap fell instantaneously at twenty-three minutes before two o'clock, and a desperate man was launched into eternity. His neck was dislocated by the fall, and not a struggle or even a quiver was visible.

Jack Cooper was a native of Erie county, Pa., and was twenty-nine years of age on the 22d of October last. His parents were persons of fair character, poor and ignorant, and both died when he was about six years of age. Cooper was only one of many aliases which he had assumed during a career of crime. His name was Samuel Wittum, and his father's name was Artemas Wittim. While running his wild career, Cooper had been twice married. His first wife is dead. The second wife, with whom he lived but a few months, is a resident of West Greenville, Pa.

The Capsizing of the Parana—Body Recovered.

The body of Thomas Collins, engineer of the propeller Parana, who was drowned in the Monongahela river, opposite Braddock's field, on Wednesday, by the capsizing of the boat, was recovered near the scene of the accident on Thursday evening. Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body yesterday, and after a full investigation the jury returned a verdict of accidental death. The body of the deceased was brought to this city after the inquest, and is now being embalmed at the establishment of Mr. Devore, on Grant street, preparatory to being sent to Chillicothe, Ohio, where his family now reside. The unfortunate man had been employed on the propeller for nearly two years. He leaves a wife and one child. Search is being made for the body of Mrs. Sarah Wilson, who was drowned at the same time.

The name of the captain is E. E. Elsey, and not Wilson, as stated yesterday. The boat was the property of Messrs. Laughlin & Co., iron manufacturers, of this city. The loss is but slight, as the boat can be raised.

—Since the above was in type, we learned that the body of Mrs. Wilson was found and conveyed to this city, for the purpose of embalming, previous to its removal to her friends.

Before Alderman Strain.

George Burkhardt yesterday made information before this magistrate against Daniel Burkhart for surety of the peace, for threatening his life with a revolver. The parties live in the Ninth ward. A warrant was issued.

Mary Gimes accuses Jane Grimes and another female, name unknown, with larceny. The parties are all servants in a house at Oakland, and the prosecutor states that she was robbed a night or two since of a pocketbook containing $18 in greenbacks, and she strongly suspects these parties. A warrant was issued for their arrest.

Fred. Weymuth was arrested on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by John Carl, who alleges the defendant knocked him down. The parties live in the Eighth ward. Fred was held to bail to answer.

Henry Miner was arrested on a suit of surety preferred by Henry Audey, and on a hearing held to bail. The parties belong to the Fourth ward.

Book Table.

"THE GOLD BRICK." By Miss Ann S. Stephens, Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Bro's.

This is a new work by Miss Stephens, whose well-deserved popularity will ensure for it a general perusal. Miss Stephens is one of the few American women who have attained to distinction as writers of fiction; and although her rank is not that of the highest in that department, she holds an established position which every work of hers renders the more secure. "The Gold Brick" is a rather exciting romance, involving gold jewels, massacres, prisons, and numerous startling incidents; but all are strung together with skill, and the interest of the reader never flags. For sale by H. Miner, No. 71 Fifth street.

City Mortality.

The following is a list of the deaths in this city from April 15th to 23th:

Diseases: Consumption, 4; Metritis, 1; Inflamation of Bowels, 1; Congestion of Lungs 1; Laryngitis, 1; Typhoid Pneumonia, 2; Exhaustion of Brain, 1; Scrophula, 1; Typhoid Fever, 1; Hooping Cough, 1; Accident, 1; Consumption, 1; Constitutional Debility, 1.

Of the above there were, under 1 year, 2; from 1 to 2, 1; from 2 to 5, 2; from 15 to 20, 2; from 20 to 30, 6; from 30 to 40, 1; from 40 to 50, 2; from 50 to 60, 1. Males, 7; Females, 10; White, 17; Total, 17.

The Fayette County Homicide.—Thairwell, the principal in the Housman murder, has confessed that he shot the deceased through the head, while he lay asleep in his bed, and that Mrs. Housman was present with a tub in which to catch his blood! Mrs. Housman, in her "confession," alleged that Housman first shot at Thairwell, and that the killing was in self-defense. Thairwell's statement is probably true. He alleges that Mrs. Housman persistently urged him to commit the act until he consented to do so.

Death of an Alleged Murderer.—A young negro by the name of Frank Bias was arrested in Connellsville several months ago for the murder of Mr. Sechrist, of that place, and lodged in jail for trial at the next court. While he was in jail, however, he was attacked by consumption, and died on last Friday. Having been a soldier in the late war, his corpse was taken out of jail by some of his colored friends, and on Sunday was buried with the honors of war.

General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.—We learn through a note received from the Rev. John N. McLeod, D. D., the Stated Clerk, that the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America will meet in the Reformed Presbyterian Chuch in Xenia, Ohio, on the third Wednesday, (16th day) of May, 1866, at 2 o'clock P. M., to be opened with a sermon by the retiring Moderator, Rev. David Herron.

Seduction Case Settled.—The suit for seduction, which was instituted before Alderman Strain a day or two since by Eliza Ann Hill against Lewis Moon, of McKeesport, was amicably settled yesterday. The defendant, upon being arrested and brought before the Alderman, agreed to settle the matter by marrying Eliza, and the twain were at once united in wedlock by Alderman Strain, and went on their way rejoicing.

A Sad Affair.—On Sunday morning last, April 22, Miss Sarah Forcee, residing with her mother in Bradford township, Clearfield Co., shot herself with a revolver while in her room—the ball taking effect in the forehead. From all the circumstances connected with this sad occurrence, there is little doubt that the fatal shot was accidental, whilst carelessly handling the revolver.

The Blood Searcher Case.—In reporting the case of Fulton vs. Sellers & Co., we stated that the defendants had a written contract with Dr. Lindsey to make his Blood Searcher, and that the time Mr. Fulton's contract had expired. Mr. Fulton, however, contends that Dr. Lindsay had no authority or right to contract with any one for the manufacture of the medicine.

Discharged.—Margretta Work and Benj. F. Work, charged by Benjamin Work, the husband and father of the respective defendants, with destroying a deed, appeared before Mayor McCarthy yesterday for a hearing, but the prosecutor not being present, the case was dismissed, and the defendants discharged.

Sunday Train on the Allegheny Valley Railroad.—A church train will hereafter be run on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, between the Soda Works and this city—arriving here at ten o'clock, and leaving at one o'clock. The patrons of the road will no doubt duly appreciate the accommodation.

Illegal Liquor Selling.—Patrick Kinney, of the First ward, was yesterday fined $50 by Mayor M'Carthy, for selling liquor on Sunday. E. M'Dermott, also of the First ward, was fined in the same sum for a similar offense. The fines were paid.

Broke his Leg.—Yesterday evening, about half past six o'clock, at the intersection of Marbury street with Penn, a man, driving a team, was jolted from the wagon seat to the pavement, and broke his leg.

Fire on the Story Farm.—Messrs. Fisher & Brother are reported to have lost $4,000 worth of oil by the fire on the Story Farm yesterday.

Pittsburgh Gas Savings Company.

We announced a few days ago, the project of this company, and that its subscription books would be opened by the Commissioners appointed for the purpose, (under its charter from the Legislature,) on May 21st, 1866, at 10 A. M. at the Cash Insurance Company, 59 Fourth st., Pittsburgh. Since then we have personally examined the operation of the "Gas Saver," at the office of William Phillips, Esq., No. 2 Girard House, Smithfield street, and are fully impressed with its great ingenuity and practical value.

The "Gas Saver" is a case made of galvanized iron, which is placed adjoining the gas metre. Before the gas passes into the metre, and registers itself, it has to pass through the "Gas Saver." The "Gas Saver" is filled with a hydro-carbon fluid, through which the gas passes. The "Gas Saver" is so mechanically arranged in its interior, that by capillary attraction the fluid is drawn up constantly to the proper level for the gas to receive from it its carbon. Carbon as every one knows is the illuminating property of the gas.

The gas being thus fully carbonized as it passes the "Gas Saver," doubles its illuminating power; hence one-half the same quantity of gas burnt, furnishes the double light.

There can be no error in this, as it is founded on scientific facts as well known as that two and two make four in arithmetic. The "Gas Saver" has been thoroughly tested in New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago, St. Louis, and here in Pittsburgh, with entire success.

It has been examined here by our most competent gas engineers, chemists and scientific men, and meets their unanimous approval. It is now on exhibition at the office of Wm. Phillips, Esq., at the Pittsburgh Theatre; at Kennedy's Restaurant, Smithfield street, and will be, on Monday night, April 30th, at the new Academy of Music, Liberty street.

Pittsburgh consumed eighty million cubic feet of gas last fiscal year, as per printed report of the Pittsburgh Gas Company. This private consumption of gas is exclusive of that supplied to the city government.

This year the consumption will be, or rather we may say is ascertained at about 120 million of cubic feet. All experience shows that in 1867, 1868, 1869, and every succeeding year the consumption of gas will rapidly and surely increase.

To meet this would require a very large outlay of Pittsburgh Gas Company to extend their works, and even should they do this, any invention or company that will economize to our citizens the amount of gas necessarily consumed is certainly deserving of and should receive the thanks and aid of the public.

The Pittsburgh Gas Savings Company is Sixty thousand dollars capital, being limited to six thousand shares at $1 each.

Under energetic and competent management, it is believed it will prove the largest dividend paying company in our city.

Public attention and the closest enquiry of our citizens is called to its merits, as the more it is loooked into the greater value will be found.

A matter of so great importance to our entire city, and as saving consumers one-half of their gas bills, and furnishing the same amount of light, is well worthy of attention. We append one certificate, from amongst many others, showing its practical results in St. Louis, and will again refer to this matter.

LINDELL HOTEL—ST. LOUIS, Feb. 19th, 1866.—Dr. Boynton's Gas Light Multiplier has been on trial at the Billiard room of the "Lindell Hotel" for the past week, and we, the proprietors, hereby assert the practicability and economy of the invention. During every evening, with the "Multiplier" the consumption of gas was materially diminished. The result of the experiment for the last four days is as follows:

Wednesday, with the Multiplier (or Gas Saver)	385 feet.
Thursday without it	950 "
Friday, with Multiplier	500 "

On each of the above evenings thirty-two burners were used, without turning down, for six and one-half hours.

Saturday the burners were turned up or down, as they are ordinarily, and with the Multiplier connected the amount of consumption of gas was 510 feet. The average amount of gas burned in the room is 800 feet per night.

The quality of the light produced by the use of the Multiplier was decidedly superior to that supplied by ordinary coal gas.

In our judgment, formed from a careful observation of the Multiplier, for the past week, we can cheerfully recommend it as worthy of the confidence and patronage of the community.

We are satisfied as far as we could judge by experiment here, that a three-foot burner with the Multiplier will give as much light as the six-foot burner without the Multiplier.

(Signed.) HATCH, WEAVER, FELT & Co., Proprietors Lindell Hotel.

Pleasant Reunion.—The proprietor of the El Dorado Hotel, Mr. J. R. Dickey, entertained a number of his friends last evening to a splendid supper on the occasion of the opening of his magnificent new dining-room. Among the guests present we noticed B. G. Childs, A. McElwain, Joseph Ross, Jno. Case, Alderman Butler and Strain, James Blackmore, Jared M. Brush, Warden White and others. Speeches, recitations, songs and sentiment were the order of the evening, and at a proper hour the party adjourned with three cheers for their generous host. We should not omit to mention that the supper was prepared under the auspices of "Jim Wiggins" who is, and has been for some time, employed in the El Dorado Hotel.

Injury from Powder.—Richard Jones, of Millville, Cambria county, had an arm and a leg broken, and was otherwise seriously injured a few days ago, by the premature discharge of a blast. The accident was caused by hammering a needle into the priming hole.

Unfortunate.—George H. Pitt, who recently removed from Johnstown to Kansas City, lost two thousand dollars worth of household goods at St. Louis, by the burning of the boat on which they had been reshipped. He had no insurance.

Dedication.—The Methodists of Phillipsburg, Beaver county, have erected a new church, which will be dedicated on Sunday, May 6th. Rev. J. J. McIlyar will preach in the forenoon, and Rev. J. Horner in the afternoon.

Accident to a Boy.—A young lad named Cunningham, received a severe injury on the head yesterday from a fall on East lane, Allegheny. It is supposed the concussion produced a fracture of the skull.

FOR GOVERNOR:

MAJ. GEN. JOHN W. GEARY,

OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES.

There are reports by way of London that the Emperor of the French is highly dissatisfied with the conduct of our Government on the Mexican question. Nothing is more probable. An ordinary man naturally feels annoyed when his favorite plans are interfered with, and, especially, when there is a probability that they will miscarry because of interference; much more an Emperor, who feels he is the most powerful potentate in the world, and has had his worst tendencies exacerbated by the compliances of other rulers and peoples.

NAPOLEON has assumed to be, and really has been the arbiter of the destiny of Europe. True, he has not been troubled by interferences from without in the affairs of that continent. The United States is the only non-European power that has possessed the ability to intermeddle; and it has carefully refrained, as much from inclination as from interest. But NAPOLEON has allowed no European nation to make a movement beyond regulating its own domestic economy without incurring his intervention in one form or another. He has exercised over his neighbors a supervision more rigid than the United States, under the Monroe Doctrine, would exercise over outside nations who should seek to concern themselves with matters pertaining to this continent.

With the Monroe Doctrine, as popularly expounded, we have never professed any sympathy. We have not felt it wise or prudent for our government to make war against any and every European nation who happened to acquire possessions on this continent. Mr. MONROE, though not possessed of first class abilities, was a man of clear understanding and of cautious temperament. He was incapable of inventing a system of political knight-errantry. What he declared was that, as circumstances stood, the United States could not fail to hold as a manifestation of unfriendliness to itself the intrusion of any European nation into any one of the States of this continent. That was a most sensible view of the case.

The invasion of Mexico by France, considering the pretexts on which it was undertaken, and the perilous condition of this country at the time, was properly viewed by our Government as an act of unfriendliness. Remonstrance was accordingly made against it, and the Empire of MAXIMILIAN has not been acknowledged.

Latterly, NAPOLEON has endeavored to placate the Administration at Washington by promising to withdraw his troops. He has had the assurance to profess conversion to the Monroe Doctrine. He deceived neither the President nor the Secretary of State, for it was well known he had arranged for substituting Austrian troops for French. The consequence was that while Mr. Secretary SEWARD, with diplomatic politeness, expressed to the Minister of MAXIMILIAN the satisfaction felt by our Government at the French withdrawal he addressed a stern remonstrance to the Austrian Emperor against his sending over regiments to replace in Mexico those going away.

This may have settled NAPOLEON if there is any truth whatever in this London report. But it seems strange that so warm a convert to the Monroe Doctrine as he has professed to be, should backslide so soon. We place no reliance on the rumor.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The Union men of Bedford county will meet in Mass Convention in the borough of Bedford, on the first day of May. "All those who are in favor of maintaining the laws and perpetuating the Union of States, the Union saved by the blood of loyal men, and wrenched from the control of insurgent traitors, all who are in favor of standing by our representatives in Congress, all who are opposed to the demagoguery of the magistrate who does not hesitate to demand that traitors whose hands are yet reeking with the blood of treason shall be reclothed with more than their former powers, all who are in favor of standing by the soldiers who have achieved our glorious victories; and all who desire the election of that tried and true hero, Major General JOHN W. GEARY, are earnestly invited to attend."

The Hon. JOHN CESSNA, Col. FRANCIS JORDAN, and Gen. W. H. KOONTZ, are announced to speak. Let that ball roll on.

SOME COMMENTS have been made by the conservative press on the lack of unity of idea and action on the part of the radical majority in the two Houses. We do not see that greater harmony prevails among the friends of the President in the development of his schemes. The conservative organs, here and elsewhere, are loudly protesting against the means used by the President to accomplish his ends. When, three months ago, we predicted the very tactics which are now being used, we were held to be visionary or suspicious, or both. We saw then what the end would be. Every man, with the map of the political history of this country before him, who did not see whither affairs were drifting was totally unfitted for the function of journalism. Did the conservatives, who applauded the President's Policy, and urged him to pursue it, foresee what means would be necessary to impart efficiency thereto? Or, did they conjecture the Republican masses would be more ductile and complying than they are to-day found to be?

IN THE EARLY PART of the session Congress hesitated as to the admission of the Territory of Colorado as a State of the Union. The rapid augmentation of population in the Territory has induced a more favorable view of the case, and the Senate has passed the bill for creating the new State. The House will probably concur. The democratic journals are invoking a veto on the ground that the Senators elect are Republicans not of the Presidential type. They have forgotten, so quick, their favorite doctrine of "no representation of taxation."

SO FAR this season the Pennsylvania Coal Company have forwarded no coal to market at New York, either by the Erie Railway or the Delaware and Hudson Canal. A contention about rates of toll has caused an entire suspension of business by the former company. If this shall continue through the summer, the supply will be diminished a million of tons.

TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.

Ever since the arrest of JEFFERSON DAVIS military law has been uppermost in Virginia. Quite recently the Proclamation of Peace has been expounded not to mean the subordination of the military to the civil law in the States involved in the rebellion. If a case ever rose in this, or any other country, which would justify the trial of an offender by a Military Commission, it is the case of Mr. DAVIS. A good many comparatively small offenders have been brought before that sort of tribunal in different parts of the Union, tried, convicted and punished. Cases, like the assassination of President LINCOLN, which could appropriately have been sent to a civil jurisdiction, have, against urgent remonstrance, been sent to courts martial.

Twice, certainly, and possibly three times, Chief Justice CHASE has been pressed by the President to bring on the trial of Mr. DAVIS before the United States District Court. Mr. CHASE has steadily refused, because he foresaw that a trial in that manner, under existing circumstances, would be a farce, inevitably resulting in an acquittal. It would clearly be a nice point made in the carrying out of "My Policy" by the President, to have the credit of bringing on the trial, at a time and place, and before a Court presided over by such a magistrate, with a result vindicatory of the accused.

Nor should it elude observation that precisely to the degree in which the President is pertinacious to have the trial move on, the rebels express confidence that the prisoner will never be tried, or, if tried, will be cleared. This confidence has its inspiration, in what? Does it proceed from a knowledge of what the President intends? The ex-rebels and the Northern sympathizers are now oftener in confidential intercourse with the President than the men who stood by the Government through the four dark years of the war. Or does this certainty of acquittal spring from an assurance that in any district where the case may be brought to issue before a civil tribunal, it will be impossible either to empanel a jury, or having got the jury, by any amount of evidence, to obtain a verdict of guilty? Be this as it may, the public will do well not to put much reliance on the reports from Washington that the great State Prisoner is about to be arraigned. He is much more likely to be enlarged, and to re-appear at Washington with a certificate of election to the Senate, and to take his seat opposite Mr. SUMNER, when "my Policy" shall be fully inaugurated. There, doubtless, are men in authority at the national capital who think the trial ought earnestly to be proceeded with; but they do not enjoy the confidence of the Executive.

A REMARKABLE RECORD.

That consolation which political personages sometimes flatter themselves as deriving from the consistency of their career as public servants, would strike one, we should think, as supremely fanciful when it has for its foundation such a marvel of homogeneity, as is exhibited by the following political

RECORD.

"I shall continue in the same line of policy which I have pursued from the commencement of the rebellion to the present period."—Andrew Johnson to John B. Baldwin and other Virginia traitors, Feb. 10th, 1866.

"I cannot turn round now, and give the direct lie to all I profess to have done in the last five years. I can do no such thing. (Oh no, not he!)"—To the Washington mob, Feb. 22d, 1866.

WHAT HE "PROFESSED" SOMETIME AGO, AND WITHIN THE LAST FIVE YEARS.

"I will indeed be your Moses, (Oh Moses!) and lead you through the red sea of war and bondage to a future of liberty and peace. I speak now as one who feels the world his country, and all who love equal rights his friends. I speak as a citizen of Tennessee. * * * Loyal Men, whether white or black, shall alone control her destinies, and when this strife in which we are all engaged is past, I trust, I know, we shall have a better state of things, and shall rejoice that honest labor reaps the fruit of its own industry, and that EVERY MAN HAS A FAIR CHANCE IN THE RACE OF LIFE.—To ten thousand colored men at Nashville, October 24th, 1864, while he was Provisional Governor, and the Union candidate for Vice President of the United States.

"If you could extend the ELECTIVE FRANCHISE to all persons of color who can read the Constitution of the United States in English, and write their names, and to all persons of color who own real estate to the amount of $250 and pay taxes thereon, you would completely disarm the adversary, and set an example the other States will follow. This you can do with perfect safety, and you thus place the Southern States in reference to free persons of color upon the same basis with the free States."—To Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi, August 15, 1865.

"I do not want to adopt a policy that will end in a contest of the races, which, if persisted in, will result in the extermination of one or the other."

To the COLORED DELEGATION, which called upon him February 7th, 1866, reminding him of past pledges and praying a renewal of his sympathy, and his intercession in securing the "elective franchise" to their unhappy race that had crowded the battle-field that the Union might be preserved, and borne a share of "taxation" with other burdens of State:

"I say that if I have not given evidence that I am a friend of humanity, and especially a friend of the colored man, there is nothing that I can do now that would." (Too true.)—To the Colored Delegation.

"I am gratified to find the loyal sentiment of the country manifesting itself in these expressions."

"I look upon it as being fundamental, that political power should be exercised by loyal men, (the colored man excepted.)"—To the VIRGINIA DELEGATION, John B. Baldwin and others, whose recital of their loyal deeds stirred him to this sympathetic response.

"That fundamental principle, 'No taxation without representation,' was one of the principles which carried us through the Revolution,) but it doesn't apply to those colored men who lent a hand in 'carrying us through' THIS war!"—To the Virginia traitors.

When it is remembered that President Johnson, while alluding in his annual message to the condition of the Southern States not represented in Congress, took occasion to reiterate with seeming acquiescence the constitutional doctrine that that body had the sole power of determining the qualifications of the Senators and Representatives of such States whenever they should apply for admission, and that he has on several occasions since vilified that body for its action in accordance with that very suggestion, the peculiar beauties of this "record" would seem to defy exaggeration.

THE Union Congressional Delegation of New York held a caucus on Thursday night, which was attended by all the members except two or three. There was generally unanimity in the views expressed as to the course that should be pursued by Congress, and as to the work that should be done in order to preserve the Republican party and insure its success in the future. The members were decided in the opinion that to this end Congress must give them some affirmative policy, upon which the party can go to the people, and that universal suffrage must be ignored by Congress and left for the States to determine. The meeting was unanimous in favor of the admission of the Tennessee delegation in Congress.

EARLY WHEAT.—The editor of the Easton (Md.) Star has been shown stalks taken from the lot of Mr. A. A. Pascault, near Easton, which measure 28 inches in height, and so far matured that the head is in course of development. It is a variety of early white, smooth head, known as the Deil wheat.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE Cleveland Herald tells the story of a young man, who was taken suddenly ill on Friday last, and who lingered in great pain until on Sunday, when to all appearances, he died. He had but recently been married to a handsome lady, and his young wife, when preparations for the funeral were being made, insisted that it should be postponed until Tuesday. On Monday night, the wife being alone in the room, declared that the body moved. Her friends proceeded to investigate, and after a time another movement was discerned. A physician was sent for, and when he arrived he found the overjoyed young wife insensible in a fainting fit, her husband alive and the friends, bewildered and confused, circling about them. The wife was soon revived, and the man is represented as recovering rapidly from the effects of his deathlike trance.

"MONSIEUR TONSON COME AGAIN."—Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, was the Conservative Senator to whom allusion was made yesterday as expressing his contempt for the parties who could perpetrate so cruel a joke, as he supposed it to be, of returning thanks for the appointment of Wade Hampton as Postmaster at Pittsburgh. The confusion at the Department was caused by ignorance of the fact that there were three Wade Hamptons in the country, the rebel General, the Pittsburgh new Postmaster, and an old employe in the New Orleans Delta office, whose existence was discovered by General Butler upon an examination of the cash books of that concern in a charge of $2 for "whipping Wade." The latter Wade was found to legitimately belong to the colored wing of the Hampton family.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE bill arranged by the Committee on the District of Columbia, changing the entire municipality, will undoubtedly pass both Houses. It will probably get rid of the whole system of voting here, which has always been a farce, and substitute a commission, consisting of at least five persons, to be appointed by the courts, as provided in the Constitution—which commissioners shall have charge of all the great interests of the people and the Government. Prominent property holders have several times called upon the chairman of the joint committees of the Senate and House urging the passage of this bill. No one side can, particularly complain of it except the people who have fattened upon the city patronage.

THE Legislature of New York has adjourned without acting on any of the schemes which were before it for underground or aerial railways in New York city. But a commission of six persons, consisting of the Mayor of that city, the State Engineer, the Engineer of the Croton Board, and Senator Andrews, Low and Cornell, was appointed to ascertain and report to the next Legislature the most advantageous and proper route or routes for a railway or railways suited to the rapid transportation of passengers from the upper to the lower portion of the city of New York.

A POSER.—Colonel John H. Taggart, removed from the Philadelphia Collectorship, after learning of his official decapitation, made bold to call upon the President and respectfully inquired the reasons of his removal; the President refused to assign any reasons for his action, upon which Colonel Taggart courteously remarked that he failed to see in his removal an adherence to his (the President's) late circular in reference to the appointment to office of ex-soldiers and sailors. To this the President deigned no reply, and Colonel Taggart left as wise as he came.

ASCENDING A MOUNTAIN.—The first party to reach the summit of Mount Mansfield, in Vermont, this year, went upon Thursday, 12th inst. The road up the mountain for three miles was filled with snow from three to five feet deep, and near the summit it was ten feet deep.

Two women who came over the suspension bridge from Canada, the other day, were searched by the custom officials. Concealed under the skirts of one were one hundred fine fans, and under the skirts of the other ten pounds of plug tobacco.

CINCINNATI has just put into operation a system of removing garbage from streets and dwellings. Eighty carts and a sufficient force of men are employed to remove house garbage in the forenoon and street sweepings in the afternoon.

MISS FRANCIS BANNISTER, of Newton, Bucks county, a young lady of 22 years, was killed on the 15th inst., by being caught in the machinery of Joseph Hampton's mill, which she was visiting in company with some friends.

GEN. McCLELLAN is now in Germany. If Austria is wise she will offer him a large bonus to join the Prussian army. It would be tantamount to striking that institution by lightning.

JOHN VAUGN, of Manchester, Va., shot and instantly killed a negro on Sunday morning, who was breaking into the money drawer of his store.

Romantic Elopement—Return and Marriage of the Parties.

Sunday last an elopement occurred which, for its romantic attainments and the circumstances surrounding the parties, has scarce a parallel in our city. The girl, a handsome and accomplished young lady but fifteen years of age, though the legitimate child of a highly respectable father, who has for some years been dead, is the daughter of a now noted prostitute of this city—her mother having abandoned the paths of virtue since the death of her husband. With true motherly feelings however, though she had fallen, she had determined that her daughter should never follow her example in leading the life of shame.—Hence the daughter was placed in one of our first academies of learning, and received every attention. She grew up to the age of fifteen, young, beautiful, and accomplished. Recently she attracted the attention of a young man, aged eighteen years, the son of one of our first citizens. An acquaintance followed; then a warm attachment, which ripened into love ardent and mutual between the young couple.

Next an elopement was planned, and on last Sunday the two went to Cincinnati on the mail boat, with a view to marriage. They reached the Queen City and stopped at the Galt House, corner of Sixth and Main streets. Meantime, their elopement being discovered, officer Sinkhorn, of this city, was despatched by rail to Cincinnati to arrest the parties and bring them back to the city. Reaching Cincinnati on Monday, officer Sinkhorn, with officer Wm. Marshal, of that city, succeeded in finding the parties at the Galt House before they were married. The couple were immediately brought back to this city, where they were met by the father of the young man, who, with all of a father's vehemence, tried to persuade his son from taking the step. All his arguments were in vain; the young man avowed his determination to marry the lady, who was equally inexorable. Becoming impatient at last, the old gentleman left the parties to their choice, and they were yesterday joined in the holy bond of wedlock and made man and wife.—Louisville Journal.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

by the judge, the solemn scenes of the [illegible] ment came flashing upon his mind [illegible] thought of the hour when he would stand before the bar of God. Immediately after the adjournment of the Court he returned home in great distress of mind, sought forgiveness and was mercifully pardoned of all his sins.

—An association has been founded in Paris with the object of undertaking a new translation of the Holy Scriptures. It is to be the work of [illegible] eight persons taken from the three great religious communities—Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish. M. Amedee Thierry, Senator, and member of the French Academy, is the President. At the first meeting held last month, the President remarked that it was a source of satisfaction to behold the three great forms of worship assembled to promote the object they all had at heart, and that there was a neutral ground on which they could meet, namely, that of philology and literature.

—A clergyman writes to the Independent complaining that there are over seventy vacant pulpits in Connecticut alone, the reason being that there is so great a decline of religious interest that congregations cannot be induced to contribute enough for the support of pastors.

—The second National Council of the Roman Catholic Bishops of the United States will be opened in Baltimore on the first Sunday of October. There are at present seven ecclesiastical provinces, embracing forty-eight dioceses.

—Rev. R. M. Hatfield, one of the special contributors to the Independent, takes the ground that the Fenian movement is directed against Protestantism and in the interests of the Papal church.

—From the tone of the Baptist papers the union proposed between the Baptists and Disciples is opposed by the great majority of the Baptists.

—The Missionary ship John Wesley has become a total wreck in the Bay of Tonga. Several missionaries and their wives were on board at the time.

—The Swiss government has decided that throughout the whole federation the free exercise of their religion shall be granted to all Christian bodies.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, April 27, 1866.

The Secretary of the Treasury has written a letter to the chairman of the senate finance committee on the apportionment of the national currency. He says that the Senate bill 226 is seemingly general in its provisions, but strikes heavily certain States, in that by it the circulation of the banks in Massachusetts shall be diminished 50 per cent, in Connecticut 42 per cent, and in Rhode Island 74 per cent. The principle on which the reduction is based he does not think correct, as the rural population of Ohio or Illinois do not need the circulation required by the manufacturing and commercial communities. This bill proposes to withdraw circulation from banks by reducing the ratio which it shall bear to their capital. It will effect banks in all the States, more or less. By a certain fixed rule the reduction is to be effected gradually. As the circulation becomes worn and mutilated it is to be returned for redemption. The amount of which the circulation is to be thus diminished approximates $22,000,000, and it is proposed in anticipation of this reduction to authorize the issue of circulation to banks in States that have secured the least proportionate amount of circulation, as it may be needed. The Secretary argues also that banking facilities are necessary to develop the industrial interests of the South, and to stimulate the production of those staples which enter so largely into the financial interests of the country. He thinks it is important that solvent State banks should still have an opportunity to become National banks; and that provision should be made to meet the wants of those States which have been in rebellion.

—The New York Tribune, of Thursday has the following in reference to government bonds, and the movements of the Treasury Department.

The indications are that a five per cent loan will be offered in exchange for currency on the short currency debt of the Treasury. The plan most commended by parties having the ear of the Secretary is to offer an absolute thirty-year five per cent loan. Before doing this the market is to be prepared by supporting Ten-Forties, and reducing the temporary loans, thus creating a glut of legal-tenders, which must remain idle or go into stocks or commodities. The theory of those who favor a renewal of the unsuccessful attempt of 1864 in a five per cent bond is that the country is "so great" and its credit so high, as a natural sequence, that capital will cease to be regulated by the laws which govern money, and rush to the support of the great country, blessed with $2,700,000,000 debt. The proposition is that, under a free payment of the temporary loans by the use of the legal tenders now under control of the Treasury, a further reduction will be made in the rate for capital on short engagements, and a stimulus be given to speculation of all kinds. It is not possible to make a money market easy enough to float a five per cent bond at par without first advancing all railway mortgages and shares reasonably certain of paying seven per cent to very high prices. The proposed plan of giving the financial patient a little more tonic, and while it is under excitement funding the currency debt at five per cent, has its charms to those who wish to escape from the penalty of using irredeemable paper without [illegible]. The safer way would be to [illegible] would afford a reduction of currency, a [illegible] speculative engagements, and a general return to a healthy internal and external commerce.

—A Washington dispatch says:

The Crawford County National Bank of Meadville, Pa., and the the Venango National Bank of Pa. are the only ones seriously affected by the failure of Culver, Penn & Co., of New York. The first named bank has no National notes in circulation. The Controller of the Currency has appointed receivers to take charge of the affairs of the banks referred to.

—The Chicago Tribune, of Thursday, says:

The scarcity of wheat all over the country is attracting to Chicago a large number of operators from Cleveland, Toledo, Indianapolis, Lafayette, and Cincinnati, and they talk as if they were prepared to purchase all the wheat now in store for shipment by rail. Meanwhile parties from Indiana and Illinois are making heavy purchases at Milwaukee for shipment by rail, and consignments are passing through this city daily for those States. The millers of Indiana and Ohio, unable to procure winter wheat, are now running entirely on Chicago and Milwaukee spring wheat. We notice that the Rochester millers, through their organs, are still keeping up the cry of "rotten wheat," with the hope of keeping prices down [illegible]

—The Rochester (N. Y.) Union, says:

The National Union Bank of this city proposes to go into liquidation and close up its affairs at once. A circular has been sent to the stockholders by the directors, stating that the act just passed by the Legislature taxing bank capital seems to render necessary the course proposed. The taxes of this locality last year were eight per cent, and this, with the Federal taxes, would take all the earnings of the banks. The tax of seven per cent soon to be levied on the bank by the city makes it necessary for the capital to be put out of the way before the assessors get round. To prevent this tax from being levied the directors propose to see the assets of the bank. That this scheme will be carried into effect there is no doubt, and perhaps other banks may do likewise. The Union Bank has done a large and profitable business in years past, and as its stock is 12 per cent premium, the institution is undoubtedly sound. The bank paid no local tax last year, while citizens doing business had to stand the payment of their own tax and that of this bank and all others which did not pay.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, April 27, 1866.

The produce markets were moderately active to-day, though there was apparently less excitement than yesterday, and values generally have undergone little or no change. Flour and Grain, in consequence of the reduced stocks, are both very firm, and holders experience no difficulty in realizing extreme prices. Provisions firmer, and Lard and Mess Pork are held at an advance, though there is no material improvement in the demand. Groceries steady, with a fair jobbing demand but unchanged.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and higher; sale of 1 car Club at $2. Oats firm and scarce—may be quoted at 60, on track, and 65 from store. Corn is in fair demand, and may be quoted at 75@80 for small lots from store. Barley is in better demand and firmer, with but little in this market. Rye quiet and unchanged.

FLOUR—Is in fair local demand and very firm, and the supply is exceedingly light. We continue to quote from store at $9@9.25 for Spring Wheat; $10@10.50 for half Spring and half Winter, and $11@11.50 for Winter Wheat brands. Rye Flour quiet and unchanged.

PROVISIONS—Lard is firm and higher—prime kettle rendered is selling at 20. Sale of 10 bbls Mess Pork at $29—an advance. Bacon may be quoted at 13 to 13½ for Shoulders; 15 to 15½ for Ribbed Sides; and 20@21 for Sugar Cured Hams. Dried Beef, 24.

POTATOES—The market was a little more active today, while prices have undergone no notable change. Sales of prime Peach Blows, in a regular way from store at $1.10@1.15 per bush. and $3.20@3.25 per bbl.

CHEESE—Is dull and drooping, the supply being considerably in excess of the demand. Western Reserve is selling at 19@20, and Goshen at 23@24.

BUTTER—The demand is fair and the market steady, with sales of good to strictly prime at 40 to 45.

EGGS—Dull with a supply largely in excess of the demand—may be fairly quoted at 18@19.

DRIED FRUIT—Stocks light but prices remain unchanged—sales of Apples at 13@15, and Peaches may be quoted at 17 to 22, for quarters and halves.

ASHES—Quiet and unchanged—12 for Pearls, 5¾@6 for common Soda, and 6¾@7 for Refined ditto.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, April 27, 1866.

CRUDE—There was a much better demand for Crude to-day than yesterday, and while the transactions were unusually large, and the market apparently firmer, there is no change to make in quotations—15 to 15½, bbls returned and in bulk; 18 to 18½, bbls included—some holders asking 19. The reported sales were as follows: 5000 bbls, in bulk, (40 to 45 gravity) at 15; 2000 bbls in bulk, (42 gravity) at 15½; 500 bbls returned, at 15½; 450, 350, 650, and 800, all at 15. The reports from Oil City are rather conflicting in regard to the price of oil there, some dispatches quoting at $4.25, and others at $4.50 per bbl. The river is now in excellent condition for boating, and the arrivals will doubtless be large for some days to come.

REFINED—There was considerable inquiry for May delivery in Philadelphia, to-day, and that, too, at an advance, while June, July and August deliveries remain unchanged. Sale of 500 bbls for May, at 39½; 500, for same delivery, at 40; 500 do do, at 40, and 500 for first half of June at 41. We continue to quote at 43 for July; 44 for August; and 45 for September. Free Oil is quiet, and dull and nominally unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by the Allegheny river since our last report, were as follows:

BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY.
Kate Putnam ...... Clarke ...... Zanesville.

RIVER, WEATHER, ETC.

The river is again receding at this point, but there is an abundance of water both above and below for all navigable purposes. The weather yesterday was very pleasant, and there was, apparently, a marked improvement in business at the wharf.

There has not been a single transient arrival since our last report aside from the regular packets. The Robt. Moore and Pine Grove, from Cincinnati, are among the first boats due, and the former ought to arrive here to-day. The Citizen, from St. Louis, passed Evansville on Wednesday, and will be due here about Tuesday or Wednesday next.

The Leni Leoti arrived and departed for Parkersburg, and the Grey Eagle, from the same point, is due here to-day. The Julia, from Zanesville, arrived sometime during Thursday night, and the Echo No. 2, and Ida Rees No. 2, got in from Oil City, the latter boat reaching here yesterday forenoon.

The Lorena was making preparations to leave for St. Louis last evening, and would doubtless get off during the night, provided she could get all her freight on board. She had an excellent trip, including a considerable amount of railroad iron, and quite a number of passengers. She could not take all the freight offered yesterday, being obliged to turn over a considerable amount to the Emma No. 3, the next boat in turn.

The Peerless left for Oil City last evening, with a very good trip, including a large number of passengers.

The Nora after discharging the damaged freight, taken from the Silver Cloud will come up to the upper end of the levee, and commence loading for Cincinnati and Louisville, being in turn after the Kate Putnam, which boat leaves to-day. Capt. H. Devinney is still in command, with Mr. Wm. Blackstock in charge of the office.

The amount of coal sent down the river on the present rise is pretty large, being estimated as follows:

	Towboats	Barges	Boats	Bush
Cincinnati	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Louisville	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Memphis	1	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Vicksburgh	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	100,000
New Orleans	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	100,000
Different Points	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	160,000
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

The Kate Putnam, in command of Capt. Geo. W. Clarke, will leave for Cincinnati and Louisville this evening without fail, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind. She will be followed early next week by the Nora, Capt. H. Devinney.

The Emma No. 3, Capt. J. H. Marratta, just new, and one of the prettiest steamers that comes to our landing, is announced to leave for St. Louis on Monday evening. The Armenia, we understand, is next in turn after the Emma.

The Nile and Elkhorn, from Pittsburgh to St. Louis passed Zanesville on Wednesday, and Arizona, from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed the same point the same day.

The Argosy left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Wednesday last, and the Armadillo was advertised to follow on Thursday. The Importer en route from Pittsburgh to St. Louis passed Cairo on Tuesday and would doubtless reach her destination on Wednesday.

Our down river exchanges are still complaining of dull times. The Louisville Courier says:

Speaking of "paying trips" reminds us of the fact that the boat owners and boatmen here as well as elsewhere, are about at the conclusion that the running expenses of the boats must be materially reduced, or else the boats must be laid up. The majority of them have not made enough to pay current expenses, to say nothing of profits, and thus at the present rate of receipts will not be able to even pay wages much longer. The old adage "a half loaf is better than no bread," may be appropriate to the existing state of affairs.

GREENBACKS
BUT

It is admitted by our most learned physicians that DR. ROBACK'S BITTERS combine the properties of a gentle laxative, an efficient anti-bilious agent and the best stomachic known to the world.

ROBACK'S

BITTERS should be used by convalescents to strengthen the prostration which always follows acute diseases.

In the bilious districts of the West and South there has, for a long time, been much needed, an article of stomach Bitters, which, if taken in proper quantities and at the proper time, are a sure preventive of

Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague,
Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia,
Indigestion, Jaundice, Kidney Complaints, and all Diseases of a similar nature, and a preventive for bilious derangement, regulating the system, and giving tone to the digestive organs, than any other known remedy.

Now that the war is over, there will be thousands seeking homes in the South. No person who values his life should go there without having constantly at hand the BITTERS, as a safeguard against the epidemic and maladies engendered by miasma and poison water.

Travelers to and all residents of the rank bottoms of the west and south, and the Valley of the Mississippi and its tributaries, should provide themselves with the

DR. KEYSER—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which for several years back had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease. I would also state that I used the medicine myself for a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 1st of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.
JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. F. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.
Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1865.
DR. KEYSER—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less, in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.
Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—Dr. Keyser—Dear sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I tried the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could not [illegible]. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

"STOP THAT COUGHING." "How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral" in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were masters of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Jan. 1[illegible], 1866.
